National Public Radio is a private, non-profit corporation which has a membership organization serving more than 300 local member stations. These stations are funded by their listeners, by businesses in their communities, and by grants from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

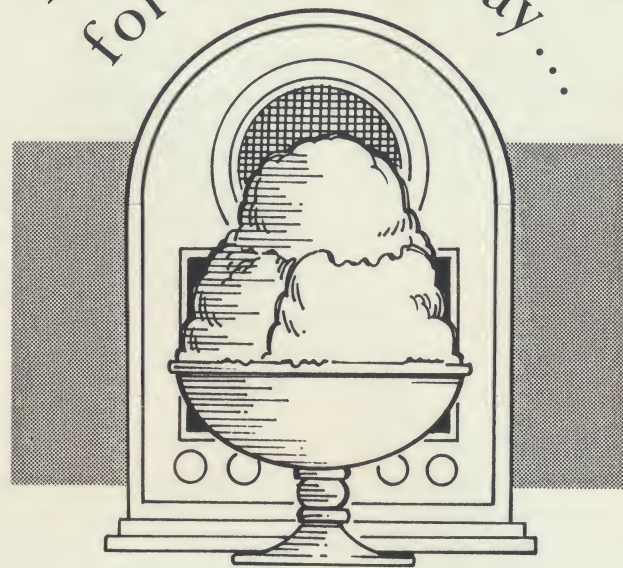

San Antonio Community Radio Corporation, the licensee, will operate two radio frequencies, KSTX (89.1 FM) and KPAC (90.9 FM), which will provide public radio service to the metropolitan area of San Antonio and the surrounding counties.

San Antonio is the largest city in the U.S. without National Public Radio Service. . . please help us bring National Public Radio to San Antonio!
